

Key Questions for 'Next Steps'

Play Service

Ask yourself...

- What do you know about your key children?
- In the last two weeks what significant observations (wow moments) have you made about your key children?
- How would you like to take them forward?
- Think of specific targets you can set your children to move them forward. Be realistic, consider the individual child's age and stage of development.
- How will you support the child, what opportunities or resources will you provide?
